EFFECTUAL DOORS OF SERVICE

What a joy it is to be returning to Moscow to teach God's Word! Our hearts are in anticipation of a great time of sharing with the students at Logos Bible School. This year we will also be teaching extensively at a church and giving our testimony at a conference for women in ministry. We eagerly await the leading of the Holy Spirit for every endeavor. God is good – so good – to open up doors before us. We believe they are effectual doors of service to His Glory.

Wayne and I are glad to travel around the world with God's wonderful message of truth. We are delighted to be used of Him. Everywhere we travel we find His grace is sufficient for our need. It is not a sacrifice to travel great distances, change time zones, or eat different food. We are not "enduring to the end". We are volunteers who honor His call with our whole heart.

As a teenager I covenanted with the Lord to serve Him in any capacity. Many years passed by before I knew I was called to teach. It was such a relief. I was almost afraid God would not choose to use me. Now with Wayne by my side we are busy in God's kingdom and yet we know we have only just begun to follow our Lord.

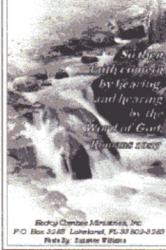

OUR LORD IS COMING SOON! Until He comes, our heart's desire is to hear His voice and quickly obey. We desire to grow in knowledge of His will. Then as we "go and come" in His name, we can confidently declare His Word and yield to His Spirit.

We believe this is your desire too. All of us want to join hearts and hands TOGETHER to bring this message of truth to offices, neighborhoods, and families. We possess a glorious gospel! We must declare it! We are "laborers together with Him".
