"It is the season to hold hands with heaven."

We Pray, We Obey, We Win

What a grand time we had in Florence, South Carolina, with Pastor Steve McCart teaching from the Word of God on prayer. We had been studying for sometime and were so edified by God's commitment to the cry of His people. It's a wonderful privilege to know that we can "ask and receive". Our Father is so aware of our need. Because of His great love, we can call upon Him and He will answer.

It is almost overwhelming to me that the death of our Lord - His shed blood and the power of His resurrection - has made this wonderful relationship with a gracious Father possible. How we do love Him! Over and over again our heart is committed to His work on earth.

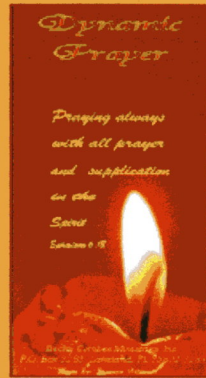

One of the most important aspects of God's work on earth is prayer. Every believer can give themselves to the Lord and see the will of the Lord perfected because of prayer. Now it is time to increase. It is the season to hold hands with heaven. Much can be accomplished! Without prayer, there will be great loss. OH, but what good news - we pray, we obey, we win.

It is so important to increase in knowledge. Let's covenant together to study the scripture and grow in our understanding of prayer. The Holy Spirit is such a faithful teacher and guide. He will help us to pray effectively. Then we will see great things because we hear from our Father and follow His leadership. What an exciting life we live in prayer! God bless you!

A Word From Wayne

Thank You. We are grateful to God for the bountiful blessings he has given us this year. We also thank you for your prayers and financial support. This has allowed us to travel to Moscow, Russia to teach at Logos Bible Training Center founded by Doug and Tanya Knight; it has allowed us to produce a daily radio program entitled "A Time of Faith"; It provided the opportunity to travel to Florence, SC, to hold a four-day seminar on prayer for Pastor Steve McCart, and to minister in churches. We could not have done this without you and for this we thank you!

We so look forward to 2003 and are encouraged in what God is allowing us to do for His kingdom. God bless you as you seek and do his will.
