He Is Risen, As He Said.

Matthew 28:6

When Mary Magdalene and the other women came to the sepulchre after the death of our Lord, they were greeted by the angel of the Lord. Oh, what glorious words he spoke to them! Today, my heart is impacted anew by their magnitude. Listen as his voice declares, "He is not here; for He is risen, as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay."¹ This proclamation captures our spirit and soul. We read it again and again. Joyously, we hear, "He is Risen!" We receive the glad invitation, "Come see." My, I love that! It is the cry of God to the world. "Come see!"

Jesus, our Lord, was the Lamb of God *slain from the foundation of the world.*² This plan of God to rescue man through the death of His Son was effected after three days of suffering in our place. Our Lord, who knew no sin, was made sin for us.³ When the price for our sin was fully and completely paid, He was raised in triumph. Sin was "put away" for all who would believe He was raised from the dead and would confess Him as their Lord.⁴

I made this decision when I was 9 years old. Later, as a young mother, I was overwhelmed by a desire to share this commitment with others. Many years have elapsed since then, but our heart is ever the same. In our spirit, we recognize the instructions of the Scripture to *go into all the world to teach all nations.*⁵⁻⁶ As we go we say, "Come, see the place where the Lord lay."⁷ Like the early disciples, we declare, "He is risen indeed."⁸ God bless you as you go into all your world with this good news.

The Great Commission...

¹⁹ Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost:

²⁰ Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

Matthew 28:19-20

It is always a delight to “Go ye therefore, and teach” in the nation of Russia. Our sixth year at Logos Bible School in Moscow was wonderful. Although the group was smaller, good seed was planted and much was accomplished.

We thank God for those who came to hear the Word. One lady traveled 3½ hours each way to class. She came with an insatiable thirst to know more about Jesus. Another young lady, a doctor, rejoiced as she learned of our healing covenant and the power available in the name of Jesus. During the seminar, she received information from the hospital on the deadly bird flu. “Ordinarily,” she said, “the medical data would have frightened me, but now because of this teaching, I know what to do.” Praise God for the power of His Word.

There are many other good reports. On the second day of class, a gentlemen was healed of a neck injury. At another time, hands were laid on a prayer cloth and the power of God penetrated that cloth like lightning, startling those standing nearby. Later in the week, two people who received prayer cloths were able to attend class, remarkably improved. Our God is so good!

This report could go on and on. We were refreshed by the anointed music of a village church over 100 miles from Moscow. We were again amazed by the listening ears at a drug and alcohol rehabilitation center and the phenomenal commitment of God’s servants in this place. Every moment of our trip, these precious people over 5,000 miles away renewed our dedication to God’s Word and His power. We thank all of you for your prayers and financial support as we spread the seed of the Gospel and travel in His name.
