To Russia With Love

It has been our privilege to preach "this gospel" of the Kingdom at Logos Bible School in Moscow, Russia for the last 4 years. Just like you and I, the Russian students have a great hunger for God. Often they commute great distances, traveling by bus or subway or even on foot to attend class. Despite extremely cold and harsh weather conditions, they continue to be faithful. They have such a desire to learn and share Bible truths.

Over the years we have watched students graduate and move into ministry. Many of the school's instructors were once students. From the class of 2001, there is a lovely young couple, Vica and Vanya, who share teaching assignments with Doug and Tanya Knight.

They both speak English and are a great help to us. Vica often interprets for Becky. A second teacher, who was pastoring a small congregation, first attended in 2003. She received the baptism of the Holy Spirit and became one of the instructors. Another student, Victor, also teaches at the school.

Each year the hand of the Lord moves and changes the lives of the students. In 2004 we taught and ministered to approximately 60 students and many church members. One of these students, a former accountant, has moved to Siberia and started a church. The church has grown quickly to 40 people. The students of Logos Bible School have such a heart for the Word of God. And although we do not speak their language, we perceive their love for Christ. We watch them reach out to God longing to walk closer with Him and serve Him. As we sing songs, though the words may seem unfamiliar, their eyes begin to light up. Our hearts are united in the love of God.

On March 13 we will again board a plane for our 5th trip to teach and worship with these wonderful people. We will be there through Saturday, March 26 and covet your prayers. Please pray that the students will have listening ears and that their hearts will be touched and changed by the power of God.
